

"...there below perched at the edge of a drop not far away, an immense sea eagle, what a sight! It opened its great spread of plumes and lifted easily into the blue on the breeze, it banked and went away without a single beat of those huge wings."

Stephen Hardy in A Wildlife Guide's Diary
on www.lochalinedivecentre.co.uk

Wildlife Excursions

Come and discover Morvern on the West Coast of Scotland. Remote, peaceful and a haven for wildlife.

With its tranquil scenery, great variety of landscapes, its abundance of local wildlife and its historical sites the beautiful peninsula of Morvern provides an ideal escape from everyday life.

Lochaline Dive Centre offers a wide range of wildlife excursions in Morvern with an experienced guide. The Centre can organise day excursions by foot, by off-road transport or by hard boat, so that even the remotest parts of this spectacular peninsula are accessible. Wildlife holidays of three or five days are also available.

For more information call
01967 421627

email

wildlife@lochalinedivecentre.co.uk

or visit

www.lochalinedivecentre.co.uk