

Sound of Mull 2010 Underwater Archaeological Fieldschool

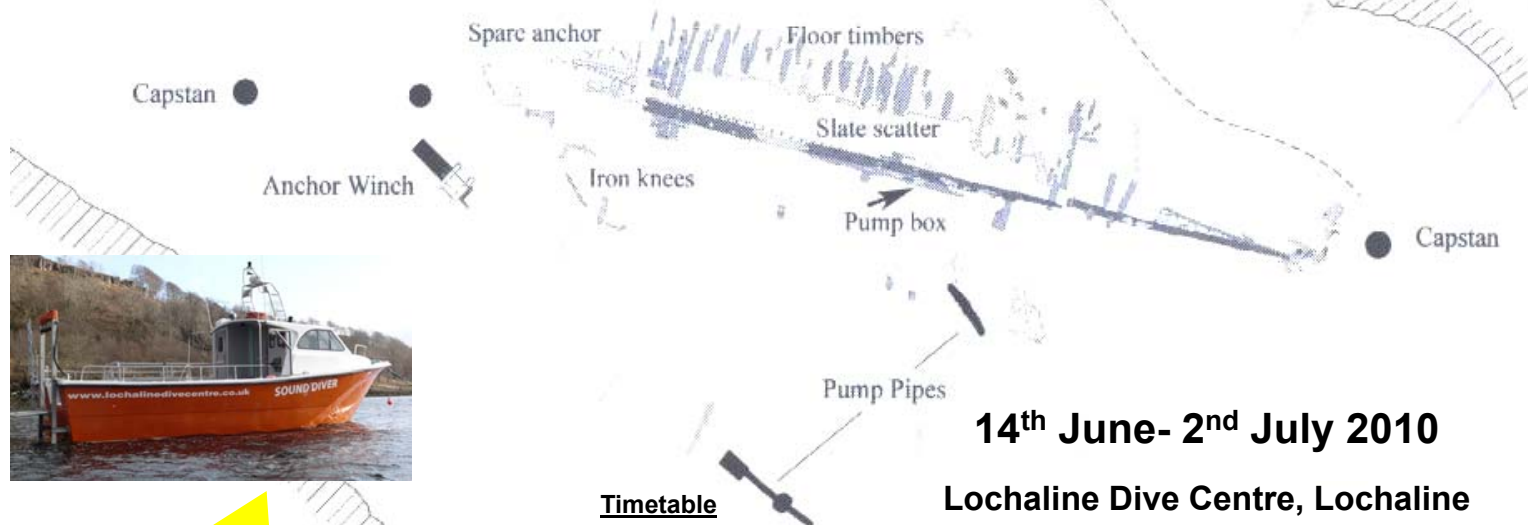

Organised in partnership with:

lochaline
DIVE CENTRE

- Self Catering/B&B Accommodation
- Dive Boat Charter
- Dive Shop, Air Nitrox & Trimix
- IANTD & PADI Diver Training
- Wildlife Excursions

www.lochalinedivecentre.co.uk - 01967 421 627

In June 2010 the NAS will be running an 18 day fieldschool on underwater archaeology based at Lochaline Dive Centre on the West coast of Scotland. The fieldschool will be taught by Mary Harvey (NAS Training Officer), Steve Liscoe (formerly of the Archaeological Diving Unit), Mark and Annabel Lawrence (Lochaline Dive Centre and an NAS Scotland Training Centre) as well as Colin Martin and Paula Martin (IJNA editor).

Diving from
"Sound Diver"

Grant Aided by Historic Scotland

14th June- 2nd July 2010

Lochaline Dive Centre, Lochaline

14th June: Introduction course

15th-16th June: Part 1 course

17th- 20th June: Part 3 courses on Site Recorder, illustration, photography, boat recording and excavation

21st June – 1st July: survey and excavation of the schooner John Preston.

Introduction course: £50.00

Part 1 Cost: £150.00

Fieldschool only cost (inc. Part 3's): £275.00

Minimum Diving Qualification: BSAC Sports Diver / PADI Rescue Diver.

Price does not include dive centre accommodation (available from £25 per night) or food. Please contact Lochaline Dive Centre to book accommodation.

Only 8 places – please contact NAS to book

Check out last years project blog at www.mullproject2009.blogspot.com/

